

Honorable Committee Members:

My name is Jacquelyn Farrell. I am writing to urge you to restore funding for the DSS-funded Wyman Teen Outreach Program (TOP), an evidence-based teen pregnancy prevention model designed to teach students healthy behaviors and problem solving skills while giving them a sense of purpose so they can set life goals and contribute to the community. National studies have shown that TOP lowers the risk of school dropout by 60% and pregnancy by 53%.

The DSS Statewide Teen Pregnancy Prevention Initiative was endorsed by the Legislative Program Review and Investigations Committee of the CT General Assembly in 2012. This Committee concluded that DSS has established a “solid methodology for TPPI funding that should continue to be applied”, and that state contract requirements and outcome measures were met or exceeded consistently.

It is difficult to understand the wisdom in eliminating a high-performing, evidence-based program that the General Assembly itself recognized as meeting and exceeding its projected outcome measures. Dismantling the program’s infrastructure and services now after years of very thoughtfully considered expansion would be detrimental to all of Connecticut’s citizens, considering the high economic and social cost of unplanned pregnancy. The average cost of DSS-funded teen pregnancy prevention services per student is only $2430. According to the National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy, the progress CT has made in reducing teen childbearing saved taxpayers an estimated $230 million in 2010 alone. Consider, for example, that just 38% of teen girls who have a child before age 18 get a high school diploma, and that daughters of teen mothers are three times more likely to become teen mothers themselves.

Please maintain funding for the teen pregnancy prevention initiative and preserve the uninterrupted delivery of evidence-based services to our most vulnerable youth.
